Membership therefore comes with a bit of work on your end. Journals Association of India members make every effort to improve the quality and completeness of metadata. Once you're in, we give you a prefix for your DOIs (Digital Object Identifiers), you create the suffixes and you begin to register content with us.

You do this by regularly depositing metadata that includes persistent identifiers and comprehensive information about the content. Your work to create and maintain the metadata is ongoing.

To apply to join Journals Association of India please click the 'join' button below. This application form will ask you for information such as:

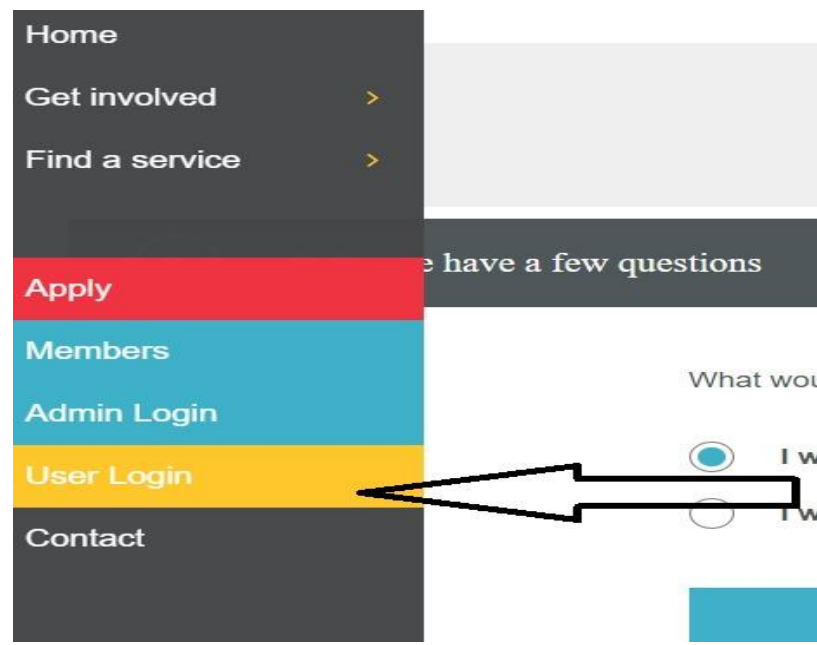

- Organization name
- Organization website (URL)
- Business contact, billing contact, metadata/technical contact (we need three different people)
- Fee category
- Confirmation that you have read a summary of your membership obligations.
